The name remembered as "Deo Valente" is Deo Volente Corporation (Latin: God willing) — Gregory B. Ham's Colorado corporation formed Nov 2014 and voluntarily dissolved Jan 26, 2025. It holds no Colorado real estate today. The real property sits in its sister entity DEO DONUM LLC (gift of God) — a single-asset LLC formed Oct 2, 2020, which closed on the building 24 days later.

Not public: lease rent, expiration and options. Those numbers drive the hold/sell math — worth pulling the lease file. National-tenant collision NNN assets currently trade at aggressive cap rates; with a +22.5% county mark since 2020, a broker opinion of value (Brent's specialty) could be interesting.

Dead-Ends Checked

- "Dale Valente" — 0 of 73 VALENTE-owned parcels statewide involve a Dale; no CO entity has agent Dale Valente.
- "Deo Valente" (exact) — only a delinquent 2010 Colorado Springs LLC, unrelated agent.
- "Deo Volente"-titled real property — only one parcel statewide (Durango; unrelated Deo Volente Properties LLC).
- Arapahoe recorder — zero "Deo Volente" documents; all five "Deo Donum" recordings (10/26/2020) tie to this one property.

Questions for G-Pops

- Crash Champions lease: expiration, options, bumps, true NNN?
- Interest in a valuation / disposition scenario on the Jordan Rd asset? Brent can run live comps.
- Kohala Rental & Malukai — Hawai'i properties? Happy to map those next.
- Kings Plaza (Pueblo) — want me to prospect tenants for any vacancies, same as I do for Brent's listings?

Every fact above comes from public records (CO Secretary of State, Colorado statewide parcel service, Arapahoe County Clerk & Recorder) or public press; anything not publicly verifiable is tagged. Prepared with aloha by Spector — the prospector that never sleeps.
