The Building & the Story

An 1881 National-Register landmark in the heart of the Theatre District — the birthplace of the ice cream soda, home of Baur's Restaurant & Confectionery for 80 years, and most recently Denver's flagship jazz room (Dazzle, 2017–2024). Three ways to win:

Space	Size	Rate	What it is
Suite 100 · street level	8,905 SF	On request	Turn-key restaurant/venue: open dining room, wraparound bar, banquet room, commercial kitchen, storage — plus the stage heritage of the Dazzle years.
Suite 300 · penthouse	8,216 SF	$35/SF Full Service	Full floor, furnished: 5 private offices, 3 conference rooms, open studio, kitchen, phone booths — and a private rooftop terrace.
Suite 200 · 2nd floor	~9,700 SF	Micro-suites $807–$1,700/mo	Candy Factory Coworking; build-out + furniture available for takeover — enables a 26,821 SF whole-building play.

10,000+	80,000 SF	96	99%	$175M
THEATER SEATS · 2 BLOCKS (DCPA)	BLUEBIRD BALLROOM · 2 BLOCKS	WALK SCORE	DEC-25 DOWNTOWN VISITS VS 2019	16TH STREET REBORN · 1 BLOCK

Positioning (honest): a pure late-night club failed in this room in 2025 and XSO opened a block away; weekday lunch is still soft downtown. The winning ground-floor use is dinner-and-show / events / pre-theater — ticketed evenings, convention banquets, supper-club energy. That's who this report targets.

Suite 100 — Call These First

#	Prospect	Why they fit	Contact path
1	ENDIT Presents (Eric Piritt) PROVEN FORMAT	Ex-president of Live Nation Colorado who bought & relaunched Ophelia's — the one local operator with a proven dinner-and-show P&L who can plug into the ex-Dazzle stage + kitchen as-is.	enditpresents.com/contact.htm
2	Lotus Concepts (F. Safieddine) DEPLOYING NOW	20+ years of downtown entertainment-dining (ViewHouse, My Neighbor Felix); opening Noble steakhouse at 1525 Blake — turn-key kitchen + late-night licensing is home turf.	lotusconceptsmgmt.com
3	City Winery (Michael Dorf) DENVER = GAP	13+ winery/restaurant/300-seat-venue hybrids, always in historic buildings, serial opener — Denver is a gap market and their formula monetizes DCPA + convention traffic exactly.	citywinery.com · Dorf via LinkedIn
4	TAG Restaurant Group (Troy Guard) 5 IN 2 YRS	Publicly plans five restaurants in two years; just took 7,000 SF downtown for 2027 — Guard & Grace already feeds the pre-theater/convention crowd.	tagrestaurantgroup.com
5	Non Plus Ultra 5+ HISTORIC VENUES	Runs Sports Castle, El Jebel & more as event venues on flexible low-capex deals — a landmark with a commercial kitchen two blocks from the state's largest ballroom is an instant banquet machine.	npu.co

Strong seconds

#	Prospect	Why / caveat	Contact
6	Bonanno Concepts	Denver's most prolific historic-downtown restaurateur (opening Rōmyō in Larimer Sq's Miller Building, Jul 2026) — time the call around that opening.	bonannoconcepts.com
7	Nocturne Jazz & Supper Club	Westword's Best Jazz Club 2025, expanding now (La Vie En Rose) — sharpest heir to the Dazzle room; 8,905 SF ≈ 3× their room, may need demise/partner.	nocturnejazz.com
8	Helium Comedy Club	Club + restaurant format in 8+ cities, still adding rooms — no Denver club in a top-20 comedy market, and the space is nearly move-in-ready.	heliumcomedy.com
9	Culinary Creative Group	13 concepts, Michelin nods, new expansion CEO (Mar 2026) — capital + bench for an anchor room; stated focus is Houston, so sell the hometown flagship.	theculinarycreative.com
10	Sage Hospitality	Runs The Curtis (336 rooms) + Corner Office directly across the street — overflow banquets & a second outlet without building a kitchen. Slow corporate cycle; plant early.	sagehospitalitygroup.com

Worth a letter: Blue Note Entertainment (Hollywood '25 / London '26 — the "Blue Note revives Denver's jazz room" press release writes itself) · Xiquita/Lucina team (hottest expanding local chefs; supper club w/ live música) · Gastamo Group · Bigsby's Folly (winery + events transplant) · La Rumba (food-forward salsa hybrid only) · RISE Comedy · Denver Beer Co. ·

Little Man Ice Cream — wildcard: demise an 800–1,500 SF soda-fountain corner where the ice cream soda was invented; the marketing is free and it de-risks the balance.

Suite 300 Penthouse — Office Targets

#	Prospect	Why they fit	Contact path
1	Barnes & Thornburg LLP OPENED FEB-26	AmLaw-100 firm launched Denver with a 35-lawyer public-finance team; launch offices typically sign permanent space within ~12 months — a landmark on the civic spine suits the practice.	btlaw.com (Denver office)
2	BRPH Architects-Engineers OPENED APR-26	ENR's #5 aerospace design firm, explicitly expanding in Denver — a design firm's office is its portfolio piece; penthouse + terrace is a client-tour magnet.	brph.com/contact · Drew Rippel
3	The Clubhouse Work & Golf SOLD OUT DTC	Golf-sim coworking that sold out DTC in 13 months, opening site #2 — a downtown edition (or management deal with KEW) complements Candy Factory rather than competing.	clubhouseworkandgolf.com (Josh Kaplan)
4	Thrive Workplace	Local flex operator for a team-suite floor — likely via management agreement (the model Industrious just used on Platte St); 8,216 SF is an exact fit.	thriveworkplace.com
5	Women's Divorce & Family Law Group	Chicago consumer-law boutique opened downtown Denver Apr 2026; wants a warm, memorable address — flag: needs 2–4K today, 8.2K only as flagship.	wdfamilylaw.com
6	Semple Brown	DCCA's own architects (~28 staff ≈ 8K SF) — relationship call, not live deal; open with the Sasaki/Kittredge comp.	semplebrown.com
7	AEG Presents Rocky Mountains	Dominant regional promoter — Theatre District address + artist-event terrace is on-brand. Cold, but the building sells itself.	aegworldwide.com
8	Denver Film	Nonprofit behind the Denver Film Festival; an HQ two blocks from DCCA fits mission + city arts-grant narrative.	denverfilm.org

Demand proof to cite, not chase: Sasaki took the top floor of the historic Kittredge Building one block away; Cooper Carry moved Boulder → downtown; HDR kept 500 people downtown; Reed Smith opened, then expanded. Character space is moving while towers sit. Biggest untapped pool: Class-A downsizers shrinking from 15–25K SF floors into ~8K of character space — they never announce; that's a CoStar-expirations mailer play.

Who to Call — Decision-Maker Contact Sheet

Public sources only (sites, press, public LinkedIn). ✓ = published direct contact. Corrections vs. v1: La Rumba's owner is Chris Swank (also Bluebird Theatre, Stampede, Mezcal, Goosetown); pitch CCG's new CEO Richard Flaherty (not Padró); Sage's new President & CEO is Daniel del Olmo; Xiquita's partner is Diego Coconati.

Channel notes: published direct emails exist only where marked ✓ — we excluded scraped/unverified emails. Warmest routes: City Winery broker-to-broker via Falcon; Sage via a Denver CRE mutual; NPU via its Denver GM. For Grossman, Kaplan, Rippel and Swank, a LinkedIn DM from Blake's real profile beats cold email.

Market Facts for Every Pitch

- 16th Street fully reopened Oct 4, 2025 after a $175.4M revitalization — one block away (Denver Post).
- Downtown visits ~90% of pre-COVID through 2025; December hit 99% (Downtown Denver Partnership via Denver Gazette / Axios).
- DCPA: the largest U.S. performing-arts complex under one roof — 10 venues, 10,000+ seats, two blocks away (denvergov.org).
- Convention Center's $233M expansion added the 80,000-SF Bluebird Ballroom (state's largest) two blocks away (Denver Post).
- Restaurants/retail ≈ 81% of new downtown businesses in the current revival (Colorado Sun).
- Office: vacancy 38.6% in Q2-26 but first decline on record, strongest absorption in 4 years, zero new supply, and $46M of city money removing competing stock via residential conversion (Denver Gazette, Bisnow, CBRE).
- Sweeteners: Dynamic Downtown Denver grants + DENVER CREATES arts fund for arts-adjacent tenants.

What I Need From You (top of a longer list)

- Suite 100 ask ($/SF, NNN or gross) and what actually conveys (hood, walk-ins, grease interceptor, bar, stage, sound system)?
- Liquor-license status & transferability after La Diabla; late-night limits; landmark constraints on signage/patio.
- Appetite to demise Suite 100 (soda-fountain corner) or add a mezzanine for a supper-club user?
- Is KEW open to exiting/handing over Candy Factory (Suite 200) for a whole-building user — real 26,821 SF play or not?
- Anything already in LOI so calls don't collide.

Ready-to-Send Outreach (after your approval)

Venue/restaurant email (excerpt): "Quick history: it's the 1881 landmark where Baur's invented the ice cream soda, and the room where Dazzle ran Denver's best jazz nights for seven years. That street-level space — 8,905 SF with a commercial kitchen, wraparound bar, banquet room, and the stage bones intact — is available... We're the owner-operator, we move fast, and we'll invest in the right operator. Want to walk the room some evening? It shows best at night."

Penthouse email (excerpt): "Our top floor is the kind of office people actually come in for: 8,216 SF furnished penthouse with 5 offices, 3 conference rooms, kitchen, phone booths, and a private rooftop terrace — $35/SF full service, one rate, no opex surprises. Sasaki just made the same bet a block away in the Kittredge Building... the terrace makes the decision for most people."
